

Addenda to CROWELL COLLECTION
Donated by Olive Crowell Beverly

PHOTOS:

1. Carte de Visite: Nettie Shiverick, 1879 (A. Marshall, Tremont Street, Boston)
2. 4 photos cut from black paper album pages, c. 1890s
 - two young women with heads together in an oval format
 - one young woman with light hair
 - one young woman with glasses
 - May Walsh, labeled "Cousin Mary" (May was the daughter of Michael Walsh, the rose breeder)
3. Mounted photo of the interior of a house, labeled "Sitting Room – Grandma Eldridge"
(house referred to is 573 Woods Hole Road and is called the Eldridge-Robinson house – now called Senate house)
(Azariah Crowell married Hannah Eldridge)
4. Pacific Guano Company, reproduced screened print in sepia, titled "Penzance Point in 1870" - an old negative restored by A.N. Thomson"

CALLING CARDS:

Gertrude Howes

Miss Josephine W. Fish, Woods Holl (two)

Mr. & Mrs. Almon P. Sturgis (elaborate Victorian typeface)

Mrs. Charles Shiverick (black border for mourning)

Miss Edith Winifred Fisher (two)

Miss Bessie Ellen Fisher

Miss Maud E. Craig

Miss Isabel P. Veeder

Mrs. Charles Glidden

Celia F. Snow (patterned textured yellow card stock)

CLIPPINGS AND NOTES:

1. Handwritten note: "1876. Basement of Asa Shiverick House Water St end of Depot Ave Woods Hole. Birthplace of Woods Hole Social Library. The books were stored in the same room as Miss Tappan (Tappan-sic) had her private school.

Louise Davis

Ruth Shiverick Will Crowell

Persis A. Crowell

Miss Crowell is the only living charter member and share holder of the original Social

Library Association.”

2. Newspaper clipping: “Woods Hole Scene Viewed with Latter-Day Realism”: reproduction of a painting by William Littlefield of the Eel Pond drawbridge with Daley’s drugstore behind.

3. Newspaper clipping: a reproduction of the Baldwin Coolidge photo of The Fay Homestead with JS Fay, daughter and nurses. Captioned: “The Joseph Story Fay Homestead at Woods Hole. Mr. Fay in the wheel chair, August 1896.”

LAND COURT LETTER:

Registered Letter of January 14, 1975 from Land Court, Boston, Mass. to Woods Hole Public Library containing a newspaper published clipping related to the confirmation of title to the Crowell House property for the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution.

SCHOOL WRITING BOOKS: 4 Ginn & Company’s Writing Books, belonging to Prince S. Crowell (of April 1900) and Willie F. Crowell.

SCHOOL SLATE, slate board framed in wood, approximately 11 ½ x 7 ½ inches

HANDKERCHIEFS: Four Linen Handkerchiefs, stamped Mercy D. Eldridge (Mercy Davis Robinson, wife of Owen Eldridge)

TOWEL: plain linen or cotton hand towel, fringed edge, stamped with a figure of a squirrel, acorns and a banner: Mercy D. Robinson (Hannah Eldridge’s mother)