

VERA WARBASSE SPOONER COLLECTION
99-20
Register

Register and Correspondence.

NOTE: Mrs. Spooner does not wish any of the following writings to be reproduced or published in any way without her knowledge and opportunity to edit them.

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: "Seek the Truth". Includes copies of photographs.

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: "The Explorer" and How my family acquired her. Includes copies of photographs.

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: "The Anchorage" and "Gladheim", Fire Guts Historic Woods Hole Home in April 1991. Includes copies of photographs and articles.

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: My Early Sailing Days at Woods Hole. Includes copies of photographs.

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: Memories of "Gladheim" and "The Anchorage" and of Sailing (1920-1930).

Papers and Writing of Vera Warbasse Spooner: The "Adams Cup", Woods Hole Yacht Club Team and copies of photographs.

Woods Hole, Massachusetts. US Coast & Geodetic Survey Chart 348, 1898 (first published 1857).

Postcards, clippings of photographs and copies of photographs.

"Gladheim" (Warbasse home on Penzance Point): Correspondence, photocopies and information. Includes an original real estate brochure on "Gladheim", published in 1940.

Photographs:

1. "Whitecap", a NY 40 class sailboat, photographed in 1927.
2. Agnes L. Dyer and "Bob" (or Molly) (Vera Warbasse's mother on horseback in front of "Gladheim")
3. 3 album pages with small snapshots: Bard Hall, Medical School, First Year; P&S, ColumbiaUniversity; Snapshots of "Explorer", "Haprev", "Whitecap"
4. Large photo of central section of "Gladheim": terrace in front of the Music Room, pink guest room above it.
5. Large photo of "Mother's garden", looking towards Sunset Point and Buzzrds Bay
6. Large photo of "Mother's garden and high privet hedge (wind break)
7. Pine grove looking towards Martha's Vineyard
8. Negative: aerial view of "Gladheim" and its boathouse on Great Harbor, Woods Hole
9. Large photocopy-print of the above aerial view of "Gladheim"