

Letter

Dear Mary Lou,

I'm just back from four weeks visiting my children in Hawaii and Seattle, the rest are around the Cape. I moved to Falmouth the year before the first Strawberry Festival. You brought back many happy memories. I picked for a short time. At 5¢ per qt. I wasn't going to survive and went on to other things. I fell in love with Falmouth and had a wonderful life raising five children with my wife Eleanor who came to town in 1952 when we got married. Margaret Hough Russell did a good job with the story.

Thanks, Bud Tietje

P.S. Sprintsail is a winner.

The 1954 Strawberry Queen's float goes down Main Street. Courtesy The Falmouth Enterprise. (Vol. 20 No. 1, Winter 2006, p. 15)