This special fundraising event will be held on the third floor of a private residence on Church Street in Woods Hole, overlooking Nobska Beach (location details will be provided in your ticket confirmation email). The program includes a question-and-answer session, led by toastmaster Jim Liljestrand, when Becky Sue Epstein will discuss wine and its qualities. Members will sip Prosecco and enjoy individually wrapped snacks.

In addition, 30 curated lots of wine will be on site, donated by Ms. Epstein who notes, "These wines are aged anywhere from a few years to a few decades. Some older wines are elegant in their robes of gossamer fruit, while others retain mere nuances of fruit overlain by tones of tea, leather, piquant herbs, gentle tannins and/or mineral-ity." Participants will have the opportunity to register silent donations to the Museum for the collections of wine, with four to eight bottles of wine per box. The highest donation for a particular lot will take it home.

All donations will be used to support the Woods Hole Historical Museum's mission and operations.
